HUNTING ACCIDENTS OCCUR IN THE COUNTY

Walter Carlson, Aged
17, of North Charleroi is One Victim

THOMAS MAN IS KILLED

Wright Patterson Accidentally Shot to Death by His Companion

As a result of a hunting accident Walter Carlson, the 17-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carlson of 913 McKean avenue, was taken to the Mercy hospital in Pittsburgh this morning in a serious condition from a gunshot wound in the left foot. The injury was caused by a gun in the hands of Joe Devore of North Charleroi.

The accident occurred Thursday afternoon about 2 o'clock while young Carlson was hunting on the Sutherland farm in Carroll township with Joe Devore and Chas. Rodgers. They started a rabbit, which ran through the fence. Carlson jumped at the fence to see where it had gone. Joe Devore who is about the same age as Carlson, shot at the rabbit and hit Carlson in the left foot. The shot tore the foot badly.

It is believed that but for the quick action of Rodgers, who tied a cord around Carlson's leg just above the ankle and checked the blood flow, Carlson would have bled to death. It is feared that it will be necessary to amputate the foot to save the lad's life.

An unusually tragic hunting accident occurred near Thomas Thursday between 11 and 11:30 o'clock when Wright Patterson aged 36 years, who resided in Allegheny county at Hill Station near the old Brush Run United Presbyterian church was almost instantly killed by the contents of a shell that was accidentally discharged from a gun held by his hunting companion an dfrriend, Mr. Robinson, also of Allegheny county. It was the first fatality of the season in Washington county.

Robinson was adjusting the slide on his magazine shotgun when the weapon was discharged in an accidental manner by him. Patterson was standing near his companion.

After tearing its way through his forearm, the contents of the shell penetrated into the middle lobe of his right lung. He lived but a few minutes. Robinson hurried to the home of Patterson's brother-in-law for aid and Dr. Boyd Emery of Eighty-Four was summoned but Patterson had been dead for some minutes before he arrived.

Coroner James Heffran was notified and was here this afternoon to make an investigation.

Patterson was married and leaves a wife and two children. Mrs. Patterson who had left a hospital only a few days ago following an illness was unable to go to her husband.

Carson; right half Stahlman or Hickey; full back, Hepler or Speers and quarterback Booth.

day, November 17

OFFICERS ARE COMING

Governor John K. Tener will assist in the dedication of the new Elks home on Seventh street, Monessen, Monday afternoon, November 16.

Extensive preparations are under way for the dedication of the building. It is the desire of the members to invite the public to the dedication, but limitations of room may prevent this on account of the number of visiting Elks who will be in attendance.

The district deputy and national officers of the order are expected to take part in the dedication. Other speakers will be present.

COMPLAINTS MADE OF RECKLESS AUTOING

Asserted That Motorists Exceed Speed Limit and Do Not Blow Horns on Two Streets at Eighth

Complaints have been made as to reckless automobile driving in Lincoln avenue and Washington avenue at Eighth street. It is asserted that the law is more or less flagrantly violated, and that the violations are of almost daily occurrence. This is only one of the spots in the borough from where complaints have been made.

The charge is made by residents of the Eighth street section that automobiles are driven on both Lincoln and Washington avenues at an excessive rate of speed and that the drivers do not trouble themselves to sound their horns for the crossing. The result, it is maintained is great danger to pedestrians and particularly to children.

One person has called attention to a recent occurrence in McKeesport. In the hill section there, it was asserted, reckless driving was in order until a child's arm was ground off. That stopped the practice.

FINAL PAVING WORK NEARING COMPLETION

Hastings and Piper Engaged on Paving on Lincoln Avenue--Will Finish up All Work of Fall Season

Hastings and Piper will finish the paving of Lincoln avenue from the intersection of Lincoln avenue and Washington avenue to the intersection of Lincoln avenue and Fallowfield avenue this week. This will complete all paving for this year. No more will be done until next spring. Much paving work is contemplated for 1915.

Considerable paving has been done since January 1 of this year, of which the principal was Lincoln avenue. Many of the cross streets have also been paved. With the exception of Tenth street all the cross streets are paved to Lincoln avenue.

Another paving improvement this summer and one that has been needed for a long time was the road to the Charleroi-Monessen hospital. This road was almost impassable a greater part of the time, an dit was hardly possible to take a patient to or from the hospital.

WINE, WOMAN AND CONFERENCE OF THEN APOLOGY TO BIBLE CLASSES PASTOR IS ORDER HELD BY EXPERTS

Wine and women are said to have been the undoing of Samuel Fox, of Speers. He was arrested Wednesday afternoon by Corporal Philip Roller and Private Murphy of the state police, on charges of assault and battery, disorderly conduct and running an automobile while under the influence of liquor, which were preferred by Rev. W. G. Rammage, pastor of the Rehobeth church.

Rev. Rammage was returning home from his church fallowen when the incident occurred. There was an automobile standing in front of his place which contained two men and two women, who it is said were under the influence of liquor and were making considerable noise. The minister reprimanded them and then walked to the rear of the machine to take the number. Fox is alleged to have assaulted him.

Fox did not give the names of the other occupants of the machine, stating that he didn't know who the women were as they were masked. Rev. Rammage withdrew the assault and battery charge, with the understanding that Fox make a public confession of his conduct and apologize to Rev. Rammage before his congregation.

County For Suffrage

Women Meet at County Seat and Listen to Address by State President

Washington county is working hard to make woman's suffrage a reality in Pennsylvania. This was forcefully demonstrated Thursday afternoon and evening at the two sessions of the annual Washington County Woman's Suffrage conference held in Washington.

Practically every section of Washington county has been organized. Mrs. Frank M. Roessing, state suffrage president of Pittsburgh, gave proof of the growth of the suffrage movement in the state. The 75 delegates in 15 minutes Thursday evening pledged $700 for the advancement of the work and it was indicated that more could be had if necessary.

Mrs. John N. O'Neil of Charleroi was among the delegates named to the state convention to be held in Scranton.

The boys were taken in charge by a railroad officer near the passenger station here. Frediski's father came for him Thursday night. Ragelowski's father came this morning for him.

ED HORN'S CONFUSED: ONE DEAD. THE OTHER LIVING

The Ed Horn who died in Mingo Junction, Ohio, after being clubbed into submission by a police officer was not the former Charleroi Ed Horn, as had been reported. This information was furnished this morning by Alfred Horn a brother, who lives in Charleroi. The former Charleroi man of that name is well and happy.

Dirty streets are particularly costly to the borough.

LOCAL FUSS GETS INTO COURT AT WASHINGTON

A fuss between two neighbor women in an apartment at Charleroi was aired in the county court at Washington Thursday. Mrs. Elizabeth Baker was charged by Mrs. Linda Craig with breach of the peace. The trouble according to the testimony occurred at a time when Mrs. Baker and her husband were having some words, using a slang expression. It was testified that Mrs. Craig "busted into the trouble." Mrs. Baker was claimed had threatened to beat Mrs. Craig with a club she had. Mrs. Craig was accused by the defendant with being a trouble maker. The defendant was discharged and costs equally divided.

BEEF TO BE HIGHER

Five states are now under Federal quarantine because the authorities have found four cows suffering from the foot and mouth disease. During the quarantine no live cattle may be shipped out of the quarantined states, although they may be shipped into them. The Chicago stockyards may receive supplies of live cattle, but these must be slaughtered immediately. The quarantine does not extend to dressed beef and it may be shipped as before.

The layman can hardly understand, says the Uniontown Herald why there is such a wide-spread quarantine merely because so few cases of the disease have been found. But it is presumed that the Federal officials know what they are doing. It makes no difference whether they do or not since there is no appeal from their decision. We must put up with it until the malady is prevented from spreading and later stamped out entirely. In the meantime prices for beef will rise. This time there will be something aside from the rapacity of the packers and the Beef Trust to justify the increase. However, this will not make it any easier for the ordinary man to provide meat for his table and many more will have to join those who are perforce on a vegetarian diet.

ONLY A LEAF

When we see a leaf fall from a tree do we wonder how that leaf can be converted into money? Hardly! It is only a leaf.

Yet at this season of the year there are countless billions of leaves falling from trees, and every single leaf is of value if the human brain cares to utilize it.

These leaves can be swept into a pile in the back yard, or elsewhere, and converted into a compost heap for use on the garden next summer. There is no better fertilizer.

They will make the radishes, the string beans, tomatoes and other garden truck spring into life as if touched by a magic wand. They will be a constant reminder that even the dropping of a leaf is not without its significance, its commercial value.

Convert your leaves into wealth. It is an easy thing to do.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A party of New Yorkers were hunting in the "Piney woods" of Georgia and had as an attendant an old negro whose fondness for big words is characteristic of the race. One of the hunters, knowing the old African's bent, remarked to him: "Uncle Mose, the indentations in terra firma in this locality render traveling in a vehicular conveyance without springs decidedly objectionable and painful anatomically. Don't you think so?"

Uncle Mose scratched his left ear a moment and replied, with a slow shake of his woolly head: "Mistah Gargie, the exuberance ob yoh words am be- yon mah jurisdiction."

"Oh-oh," yelled the small boy dis- comfitedly as he wandered down the street, kneading his eyes with his knuckles.

"My dear little chap, what's the trouble?" asked a benevolent old gentleman, stopping a moment for a better view of the small mischievous one.

"My sister's getting married to- day," wailed the youngster wrath- fully, and then again made the street resound with his wailing lament.

"But my dear little chap," exclaim- ed the kindly old soul, bending down to stroke the youngster's head con- solingly, "you ought to be very glad your sister is going to be happy. Any- way it's nothing to cry over."

"The 'dear little chap' jerked his head free and burst into more vio- lent and ear-piercing music as he spluttered satistically:

"Oh, ain't it? If—if you'd been paid ten cents a week to keep out of the way when her young man came to the house, you wouldn't be sorry when your sister had gone and got married, would you?"

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Uncle Joe Cannon can give Jim Jeffries a few points on the art of "coming back."

Since the new skirts came into vogue it has been positively demon- strated that girls are not bow-legged.

DISCUSSES THAT SCHOOL MATTER OF FALLOWFIELD

To the Editor of the Charleroi Mail: The action of the school directors of Fallowfield township in letting the contract to remove the building of the Rodgers school No. 8 is puzzling to many of the patrons, residents and taxpayers, who petitioned the board to reconsider their action and leave it on its present convenient site and give learned and skillful attention to water, light, closet and playground. "Safety first" was a reason alleged for the board's action, but they re- located the building with steps five feet nearer the pike than the present lower step of the approach and about 300 feet nearer the dangerous corner where the late automobile accident oc- curred; also between the street car track and the pike where a wild auto would be less impeded in its dangerous panks. The building will also obstruct the view between the two dangerous curves 700 feet apart on the auto thor- oughfare.

Sanitation was mentioned, but the reason will be a dirt catcher for the gales which so frequently sweep the place. The difficulty of removing germs from dust from a building soiled with human breath is well known, also soiled clothing means soiled hands and soiled books.

A sanitary well was called for, but any much used well will look unsight- ly and soppy if the keepers do not give skillful attention thereto.

The light was complained of. Meas- urement disclosed that the area of the light inlet is less than ten per cent of the floor space. A wire netting ob- structs two per cent more and shades more too, thereby reducing the actual area of light inlet to about seven per cent. The standard area of light in- let is twenty five per cent of the floor area; hence a change of architecture not a change of location is the remedy. Similarly kept closets will not be tol- erated in the new location.

The charge of lack of playgrounds is unfair as the directors or teachers have always secured convenient and suitable play grounds. However the Rodgers estate offered the school a playground adjacent to the building, averaging 60 feet by 180 feet on a bench six feet above the pike thereby preventing much of the auto danger incident to the new site.

The township now possesses a con- venient and suitable site, why do they want land which belongs to other who strictly forbid them to take. Already large sums of money have been offered for coal right ways over the premises by a company who can go around it. The condemnation of it by the school authorities will block other owners of coal from using this natural outlet, desecrate the right of security to the private ownership of property.

Adapt's Shirt

The head of the house came down stairs in a great rage.

"Where's my tennis shirt—the cel- lular one? Never can find a thing in this house."

"Do you mean the old one you had last year?" his wife interposed soothe- ingly. "I told Dorothy she could have it."

"Oh one! I only wore it twice. And what the deuce does my daugh- ter want with my shirts?"

"Well you see, dear, she wanted a blouse in a hurry for that garden party on Saturday. She was hunting round for some material and found your shirt. The wide sleeves, the turndown collar and breast pocket were all the latest thing in blouses. She only had to shorten the sleeves, lower the neck and sew on three but- tons, and in a few minutes the dear, clever girl had a new blouse. You haven't another one for Margaret have you?"—Manchester Guardian.

Gasometer Signs for Aviators

Mr. W. J. Lugard, representing the Tourist club of Holland, recently made an interesting proposal at a meeting of the congress of the League of Interna- tional Touring associations, says Lon- don Answers.

Aviators experience much difficulty in ascertaining their whereabouts when flying over towns and villages at a considerable height, and Mr. Lugard suggested that at the top of every gasometer a large arrow should be painted with the tip pointing north. His scheme includes the use of index letters and reference numbers. For example, if SX were index letters rep- resenting Sussex, and Horsham were No. 8 on the list of towns in that coun- ty, the local gasometer would be marked SX8.

COME IN AND LOOK AROUND

AMONG THE THEATRES

STAR-CHARLEROI

Manager Cowan has secured the exclusive service of the "Box office attraction" pictures for the Star theatre here. They are shown every Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Two of the featuring box office attractions shown this week were "Cruise of the Hell Ship" and "The Heart of a Brute." Mary Pickford appeared at her best in "What a Man Loves." The Seeburg automatic electrical orchestra which was recently installed is a big drawing card for the house. Some of the features this week were "A Prize in Every Package," "The House of Mystery" and "What a Woman Loves."

COYLE-CHARLEROI

The Paramount attractions at the Coyle theatre this week were exceptionally good. "The Typhoon" was shown on Tuesday. Thursday Jesse L. Lasky presented the eminent romantic actor Robert Edison in a graphic motion picture production of his biggest stage success, "Where the Trail Divides." No. 38 of "Our Mutual Girl" and No. 11 of the "Trey O'Hearts" were the serial pictures of the week. Other good pictures of the week were: "Out of the Air," "Sheriff of Muscatine," "Jail Birds" and "Diamond of Disaster." Three splendid Keystone pictures shown this week were: "Their Ups and Downs," "Hello Mabel," and "Those Love Pangs."

PALACE-CHARLEROI

Dot Farley appeared at her best Monday night in the three part feature, "Even unto Death." It was a beautiful story of undying love. "His Unknown Girl," a three-reel story depicting love and war was shown Wednesday night. Alice Joyce was featured in "The Girl and the Stowaway." The sixteenth episode of the "Million Dollar Mystery" and "The Real Agatha" were also attractions this week. The vaudeville attractions this week are: The Hurley Duo, Taz Witherford and Mae Sheldon and Kemp sisters musical comedy company. This is a strong bill and one that is sure to please and amuse.

LYRIC-CHARLEROI

Frances X. Bushman was featured this week. "The Potter and the Clay" entitled, "Under Royal Patronage." "Regan's Daughter," a two-part special feature was one of the attractions of the week. The story is full of adventure and many thrilling experiences among the mountains. "Perils of Pauline," was unusually good this week. "The Potter and the Clay" a drama in two parts was another feature of the week. For next Monday night Manager Pennmann has secured an exceptionally strong attraction in the four reel drama, "The Good for Nothing," which features G. M. Anderson.

ALVIN-PITTSBURG

During the coming week at the Alvin Theatre in Pittsburgh, "Kitty MacKay" will hold forth. The story is that of a modern Cinderella. Kitty, who has been brought up in the Highlands by a spiteful old couple, who have made of her a household slave. Kitty is sent for by her guardian to come and live with him in London. Kitty falls deeply in love with her guardian's son, a lieutenant in the Coldstream Guards, but because of a mystery surrounding her birth cannot marry him. The heartbroken girl returns to her old home in the Highlands to escape from her first great sorrow. She is soon followed by her soldier-lover and his guardian when the mystery surrounding her birth is cleared and the happy young lovers are reunited.

The company to be seen in Pittsburgh is headed by Irene Haisman as Kitty. The production is under the personal direction of William Elliott who is a son-in-law to David Belasco.

GRAND-PITTSBURG

Many startling and picturesquely beautiful features comprise the magic spectacle called Neptune's Garden of Living Statues which is to be the big thing in the program of refined vaudeville at the Grand Opera House during the week beginning next Monday afternoon. It employs a company of twenty dancers, divers, art models, water nymphs and pantomimists, headed by the Spanish nines, Carlo Casetta and Lillian Lestora and including the favorite operatic soprano, Miss Clara Sexton. It has a scenic setting representing a beautiful garden on an island in the South Sea, where, in the midst of a clearing in a grove of semi-tropical foliage, is a large pool surrounded by beautiful marble statuary, each group on a separate pedestal and each formed by young women of conspicuous shapefulness and in classical dress. Its chief spectacular effects are the beautiful statues in the garden of the water god, the mysterious fountain from the bottomless pool, the drowning of the interloper in the struggle for the nereid's charm, the awakening of the statues, the lure of the enchanted pool, the disappearance of the living marble figures beneath the waters, the spirit of Amphitrite and the nereids arising from the water at the call of their queen, and finally the sensational ascent of the last of the nereids and thrilling dive from the sky. Among the other attractions which the bill will include, in addition to Neptune's Garden, and selected moving pictures are: George M. Fisher and Harry Green, who will play James Moran's up-to-date comedy in two episodes entitled "The Partners;" Joe Keno and Elizabeth Mayne, presenting "All Life and Action," a melange of comedy, singing and dancing; the Werner-Amros company, a diversified musical number and Ethel and Emma Hopkins, singers of catchy songs.

QUITE A HARMLESS "GHOST"

Inoffensive Little Fragment Created Something Like Consternation in Section of Omaha.

Even if an official statement has been given out that a mouse was responsible for ringing the bell in the steeple of North Presbyterian church, the policemen of the district, as well as most of the residents in the neighborhood, cannot quite figure how it was done. The bell was disconnected at the request of Rev. John R. Mackey, pastor of the church, last January, and since then has not been ringing the hours as marked by the clock in the steeple.

Even the lieutenant in the police station suffered from the "creeps" and visions of a phantom bellringer and a ghost in the belfry. When telephone calls began to come into the station he dispatched four reserves to the church.

When they arrived they found that John Effner, the sexton, had made an investigation and could find nothing in the tower to explain the sudden clanging of the bell. Four "shaky" policemen and the sexton climbed the narrow ladder leading to the belfry and with police lanterns began an investigation. While they were looking the bell clanged again.

Expecting every minute to see an apparition, the police kept at their examination and discovered that a cog in the clock had been shifted by a small bit of hide, making it possible for the bell to ring. An examination showed that the hide was part of a mouse which evidently had been entangled in the delicate clock mechanism which controls the bell. The policemen still are wondering, however, how the mouse did the hickory-dickory-dock feat, for the works of the clock are several feet off the floor and are held up by supports.

The clock was stopped last January at the request of Rev. Milo Bates, rector of the Church of the Intercession. The parish house of that church is across the street, and when Mrs. Gates was ill last winter the ringing of the bell annoyed her, and it was stopped. The bell was not attached to the clock again because residents of the neighborhood said it was a nuisance. Omaha Bee.

Leprosy in North America.

In adopting a resolution favoring a bill before congress for the establishment of a national leper colony in the United States, the rather startling statement was made that the number of lepers in this country was estimated at between 300 and 500. There must have been a great increase of these cases within the last quarter of a century if these figures are correct, and it is high time that some provision for segregating the lepers in a place where they can receive humane treatment was made.

The lepers in the colony at Molokai, Hawaii, are comparatively happy in spite of their affliction. They have companionship, sanitary quarters, the most scientific treatment, and everything possible is done to make their lot endurable. It is almost impossible to imagine what a leper in this country, confined alone in a shack and treated much as the lepers were in Biblical times, must suffer. It would be more humane to put him out of his misery at once.

There are only about 20 lepers in England, and yet a leper colony is to be established there in a deserted part of the county of Essex. The late Lord Strathcona left a bequest of $25,000 for this purpose. Surely if there is need of a leper colony in England, where there are only 20 cases, there is much more need for one in the United States, where there are between 300 and 500 cases, isolated but widely scattered.—Argus.

Sad Ending of Expedition.

Captain Kelsey, leader of the Cape to Cairo motor car expedition, has died as the sequel to the injuries which he received on April 12 while leopard hunting. Thus tragically ends the Cape to Cairo expedition, which started so auspiciously, the king himself receiving its members at Buckingham palace, the Duchess of Argyll christening the car, the governor-general presenting it with a flag, and large bodies of friends in Cape Colony bidding it farewell.

LONG RECORDS OF SERVICE

English Firm Has Fifty Workpeople Who Have Been in Their Employ More Than Fifty Years.

It is hard for Canadians, born and bred in a country where opportunity and incentive to change are almost ever present, to realize completely the conditions that obtain in older countries where employment is not so plentiful that a man can afford to leave a firm with which he has secured a position, remarks the Winnipeg Tribune. Some knowledge of the situation may be gained, however, from the facts contained in a letter sent to the London Mail by the manager of a famous biscuit firm. The letter dealing with the periods of employment of the various members of the staff says:

"We have on our books 50 workpeople who have each completed more than fifty years of continuous employment with us, as follows:

"One over 60 years, eight over 57 years, two over 55 years, 13 over 54 years, 15 over 51 years, two over 50 years. Total, 50.

"Of our clerical staff:

"One man has completed 55 years with us.

"One man has completed 54 years with us.

"One man has completed 53 years with us.

"Among our factory workpeople and our clerical staff combined we have exactly 1,000 men who have each completed at least 50 years' continuous service with us. They range from 30 to nearly 50 years of service."

JUST THE SAME KIND OF GIRL

Modern Maid, in All Essentials, is a Worthy Copy of Her Mother and Grandmother.

Every now and again somebody asks, in print, this question: "What has become of the old-fashioned girl that helped her mother wash the dishes?" Probably the same question has been asked since the time of Noah and will be asked until the end.

Mary Lyon, when she provided for the establishment of Mount Holyoke college for girls, stipulated that all the household work in it should be done by the students. That rule was enforced rigidly up to a recent date, when the directors and faculty, feeling that the practice might have become outworn, made the domestic tasks of the institution optional for the undergraduates.

But when the girls of Mount Holyoke were requested to announce their wishes on the subject, 748 of the 800 elected to continue in the tasks of sweeping corridors, washing dishes, setting tables and making up beds.

There is no need to worry about the American girl, even if she does wear gowns the sight of which seems to preclude all idea of work on her part. She isn't saying much about it, but she is in all essentials the same kind of girl our mothers and grandmothers were.

How to Kill Flies.

To clear rooms of flies carbolic acid may be used as follows: Heat a shovel or any similar article and drop thereon twenty drops of carbolic acid. The vapor kills the flies.

A cheap and perfectly reliable fly poison, one which is not dangerous to human life, is bichromate of potash in solution. Dissolve one dram, which can be bought at any drug store, in two ounces of water, and add a little sugar. Put some of this solution in shallow dishes and distribute them about the house.

Sticky flypaper, traps and liquid poisons are among the things to use in killing flies, but the latest, cheapest and best is a solution of formalin or formaldehyde in water. A spoonful of this liquid put into a quarter of a pint of water and exposed in the room will be enough to kill all the flies.

To clear the room quickly where there are many flies, burn pyrethrum powder in the room. This stupefies the flies, when they may be swept up and buried.

If there are any flies in the dining-room of your hotel, restaurant or boarding house, complain to the proprietor that the premises are not clean.

Bobcat Pays for License.

James Frame, a six-foot mountaineer from London, thirty miles south-east of Eugene, brought to Eugene a bobcat pelt and a bride.

He exchanged the bobcat for a marriage license and exchanged the license for a wife. He returned with a wife to surprise his friends at London.

The bounty on bobcats is only $2, and the cost of the marriage license is $3, so Frame had to throw in $1 "to boot" to effect the exchange in the county clerk's office, but he will get the dollar back by filing a claim with the secretary of state for his special state bounty—Eugene (Ore.) dispatch to Portland Oregonian.

Rest Rooms Out of Date.

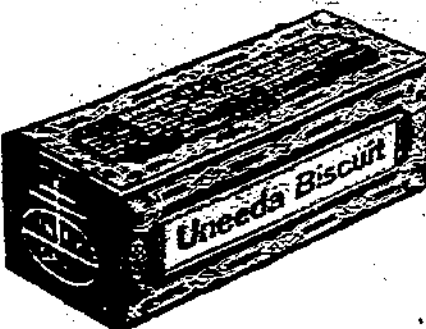

"Have you a rest room in your establishment?" "We used to have them in the old days," said the manager of the department store, "but there has been no demand for such things for many months. We have turned all our rest rooms into tango parlors."

Filial Solicitude.

"Mr. Smith, are water wagons very alth?"
"I don't know, Tommy. Why do you want to know?"
"Cause my papa fell off one last night and got a black eye."

BENTLEYVILLE

Serious Auto Mishap

Thursday afternoon a serious automobile accident happened on North Main street, directly in front of the city hall. A Ford car driven and owned by Grant Hill, of Beallsville, met with complete destruction, when the chauffeur endeavored to spare a large dog. Hill was running along at good speed when a large dog attempted to cross the thoroughfare directly in front of him. He steered close to the curb without abating his speed. The dog weighing some hundred and fifty pounds, collided full with the front left wheel. The dog's bulk being so enormous caused the car to veer and crash through the balustrade surrounding the steps descending into the jail, which is directly under the city hall. Walter McCarty, a young man of town, happened to be passing at this critical moment. McCarty was pinned to the wall by some of the flying debris. The chauffeur, however, was uninjured and withdrew McCarty from his serious position. McCarty was not injured seriously but was shaken up rather severely. The car was almost a total wreck. The front axle was forced under the car, both wheels being snapped off in fact, everything breakable was more or less damaged.

Excellent Hunt.

Other hunting parties in this section have met with similar results. Nimrod expeditions are continually leaving or arriving in the hunting districts surrounding Bentleyville.

WAR NOTES

Berlin, Nov. 6.—The Turks attacked and destroyed a Cossack Battalion on the Russo-Turkish frontier near Orduia and then crossed the frontier, taking up a strong position in Russian territory.

Amsterdam, Nov. 6.—The Russians are now strengthening their positions near the frontier, but have been repulsed completely from the Karakissa and Teehan districts. During the bombardment at the entrance to the Dardanelles the Anglo-French fleet fired 240 shells without causing material damage. The Turkish forts fired only 10 shots.

Petrograd, Nov. 6.—A Turkish army numbering 90,000 strong consisting of the Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh army corps, is massed along the Caucasian frontier, according to the Vovoe Vremya. Many villages have been occupied by the outposts of this army.

Berlin, Nov. 6.—In Egypt the English have abandoned the Arabian frontier and withdrawn across the Suez Canal.

Valparaiso, Chile, Nov. 6.—A wireless cry from the British cruiser Glasgow, intercepted by the German victors, was the last word received from Rear Admiral Craddock's squadron following the engagement off the Chilean coast. The fight was in the face of a gale. The Germans saw the Monmouth sink and heard an explosion on board the flag ship Good Hope that they believe sent it to the bottom. There were about 650 men on board the Monmouth. Admiral Craddock had 900 men with him on the Good Hope. It is not known what became of the Glasgow and the transport Otranto. There whereabouts also of the German cruisers Leipzig and the Bremen remains in doubt. The Germans praised the bravery of the English.

London, Nov. 6.—No decision has yet been reached in the battle in West Flanders. The Germans are still hammering away at the allies in the vicinity of Ypser and the allies are making an effort to move northward to Ostend. The Belgians are hindered in their movements by the floods which they created to stop the Germans.

"BIBI" PRODUCED WELL AS BENEFIT FOR LOCAL CHURCH

Thursday evening at the high school auditorium "Bibi" a musical comedy of toys was presented by local talent.

The play which was under the direction of Miss E. June Breimeier was participated in by more than a hundred young men, women and children.

The play is the story of a dream given the Toyman's daughter Katy by the Sandman. The opening scene shows the toyshop with Katy seated at a table. In her dreams she is visited by Sylvania, a retired fairy who leaves a bottle of magic-smelling sails by which means all the dolls and toys in the shop are brought to life. Bibi who is a French doll is a flirt and has two suitors Prince Caramel and Sargeant Bonbon. She rather favors the former. The Man-in-the-Moon afterwards catches her fancy and they secretly elope to the moon on a tandem.

The aid of the fairy is invoked to find the wayward doll. Bibi returns and as punishment for her misbehavior is again transformed into a doll. The fickle prince then deserts her and when she is again brought to love she is married to the faithful Sargeant Topsy, a black doll is full of mischief. Captain Tillerope a sailor and Angelica a rag doll are the amusing principals in another love match. The carnival scene is brought to a close by the appearance of the fairy who summons the Sandman to aid her in getting the dolls back to the toy shop. Many beautiful chorus numbers were pleasing features of the evening.

In the cast of characters much talent was displayed in the interpretation of the roles. Cast of characters, Gluepott, the toyman, Bannister Roberts; Katy, his daughter, Mary Chester; Biol, the belle of the toy shop, Bertha Haines; Angelica, a rag doll, Mary Glunt; Topsy, the black doll, Ruth Clerihue; Prince Caramel, Ernest Dorbritz; Sargeant Bonbon, Robert Allen; Captain Tillerope, William Bromwich; Sylvania, a retired fairy, Isabella E. Dorbritz; Man-in-the-Moon, Earl Nicholson; Sandman, Bannister Roberts; Miss Pudding Head, Florence Mack; Baby doll, Hortense Greenberg.

The entertainment will be repeated again this evening.
